

In my recent practice in an acute care setting of an acute care hospital, it would have been beneficial to have had the administration and titration of inhaled supplemental oxygen as a part of my Scope of Practice.

Ingrid Otten, PT
Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre