

These services as suggested by the OPA and OCP should of been there a long time ago. We are faced on a daily basis with patients whose medication is running because of overworked family physician un-availability. We know what they are taking better than the walk-in clinic doctor. Please help us help our patients !

Robert Aubin

Valley Plaza Pharmasave

