

The Pharmacy Scope of Practice submission by OCP is an excellent start in utilizing existing knowledge and competencies of Ontario pharmacists so that medication care for patients is facilitated. Optimizing the role of pharmacists in medication therapy management just makes sense. I have carefully reviewed the report and feel confident of being able to competently undertake the additional roles without further training - just some organization and setting of standards.

Laurie Vandewater Pharm.D.